MEMORANDUM

Table of Equivalent Standings considered equivalent to Grade 13 standing for the purpose of the Interim Vocational Certificate, Type A

1. Candidates for the Interim Vocational Certificate, Type A must, in addition to completing satisfactorily the required summer sessions, hold standing in six Grade 13 papers including English Composition, or standing the Minister deems equivalent thereto.

2. Certificates obtained in certain recognized courses have been assessed as being equivalent to Grade 13 standing for the purpose referred to above. In addition, the Minister has decided that official evidence of active service in Her Majesty's forces will be accepted in lieu of part of the required Grade 13 standing.

3. Accordingly, a candidate for an Interim Vocational Certificate, Type A, will be required to present

   (a) evidence of Grade 13 standing in
       (i) English Composition, and
       (ii) five additional papers; or

   (b) a diploma giving standing from a three-year Engineering Technology course at a Provincial Institute of Technology; or

   (c) the Secondary School Honour Graduation Diploma (Grade 13) of the Technical Course; or

   (d) a Higher National Certificate (Great Britain), with endorsements including English; or

   (e) evidence of Advanced Technical Evening Class standing in
       (i) the four obligatory subjects, and
       (ii) two optional subjects other than subjects which he is teaching or in which he holds a teaching certificate; or

   (f) evidence of standing in
       (i) Grade 13 English Composition, and
       (ii) any two papers chosen from Grade 13 Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry and Statics, Physics, Chemistry, or from Advanced Technical Evening Class standing in Mathematics I, Mathematics II, and either Mechanics I or Physics I; and
       (iii) three university extension courses for which prior approval has been obtained from the Registrar of the Ontario College of Education; or

(g) evidence of
  (i) Grade 13 standing in English Composition, and
  (ii) Grade 13 standing in one additional paper, and
  (iii) holding the diploma of an Associate of the Ontario College of Art; or

(h) evidence of
  (i) Grade 13 standing in English Composition, and
  (ii) a Higher National Certificate; or

(i) evidence of
  (i) Grade 13 standing in English Composition, and
  (ii) Grade 13 standing in one paper chosen from Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry and Statics, Physics, Chemistry, and
  (iii) an Ordinary National Certificate.

4. Evidence of six months of active service in Her Majesty's forces may be substituted for a Grade 13 paper or equivalent standing, up to a maximum of three (if applicable) papers for the requirements in section 3(a)(ii); 3(e)(ii); 3(f)(ii) and 3(f)(iii) combined; 3(g)(ii); or 3(i)(ii).

5. If Advanced Technical Evening Class standing or university extension course standing is to be used under section 3(e) or 3(f), the candidate must have spent the required time in actual attendance in class and must submit from the proper authorities a statement that he attended regularly and obtained standing in the subject or subjects concerned.

6. If a candidate was granted Advanced Technical Evening Class standing because he held Grade 13 standing in one or more papers, he may not use that Advanced Technical Evening Class standing under section 3(e) or 3(f).

7. A prospective candidate who is interested in this matter should send his documents, with an explanatory letter, to the Registrar, Ontario College of Education, 371 Bloor Street West, Toronto, Ontario.

8. An applicant for admission to the first of his two required summer sessions leading to the Interim Vocational Certificate, Type A, in 1962 and subsequent years will be required to hold Grade 13 standing in six papers including English Composition, or equivalent standing as outlined in section 3, before he is admitted to the summer session. Grade 13 papers written in June immediately prior to the summer session cannot be used, since the results will not be available when the course opens.

9. It should be noted that, effective for the summer school sessions in 1966, nine Grade 13 credits or the equivalent will be required for admission to the course leading to the Interim Vocational Certificate, Type A.

Circular 612(g)
Revised - 1965

Re Table of Equivalent Standings for the purpose of the Interim Vocational Certificate, Type 'A' and the Interim Occupational Certificate Type 'A' (practical subjects).

1. Commencing in 1966, candidates for the above mentioned Type 'A' Certificates must, in addition to completing satisfactorily the required summer sessions, hold standing in nine Grade 13 papers, or standing the Minister deems equivalent thereto.

Note: For admission to this course, the following three-hour Grade 13 examinations, if written successfully in 1965, will count as two papers: English, Français, French, German, Greek, Italian, Latin, Russian and Spanish. All other Grade 13 examinations written in 1965, or previously, will count as one paper.

2. Certificates obtained in certain recognized courses, (see section 3 below), have been assessed as being equivalent to Grade 13 standing for the purpose referred to above. In addition, the Minister has decided that official evidence of active service in Her Majesty's forces will be accepted in lieu of part of the required Grade 13 standing.

3. Accordingly, a candidate for an Interim Vocational Certificate, Type 'A', or Interim Occupational Certificate Type 'A', will be required to present

(a) an acceptable degree from a recognized university; or

(b) a diploma giving standing from a three-year Engineering Technology Course at a Provincial Institute of Technology; or

(c) evidence of Grade 13 standing in English, (Composition and Literature if standing obtained prior to 1965) and seven additional papers; or

(d) the Secondary School Honour Graduation Diploma (Grade 13) of the Technical Course; or

(e) a Higher National Certificate (Great Britain), with endorsements including English; or

(f) evidence of Advanced Technical Evening Class standing in the four obligatory subjects, and five optional academic subjects; or

(g) evidence of standing in Grade 13 English, see section 3(c), and any seven papers chosen from other Grade 13 subjects, the compulsory subjects of the Advanced Technical Evening Classes and University Extension Courses for which prior approval has been obtained from the Director of Vocational Teacher Education at one of the Colleges of Education, Toronto or London; or

(h) evidence of Grade 13 standing in English, see section 3(c) and holding the diploma of an Associate of the Ontario College of Art; or

(i) evidence of Grade 13 standing in English, see section 3(c), and a Higher National Certificate; or

(j) evidence of Grade 13 standing in English, see section 3(c), and one paper chosen from Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry and Statics, Physics, Chemistry, and an Ordinary National Certificate.

4. Evidence of six months of active service in Her Majesty's Forces may be substituted for a Grade 13 paper or equivalent standing, except English Composition, up to a maximum of three (if applicable) papers for the requirements in section 3(c), 3(f), 3(g), 3(h) or 3(j).

5. If Advanced Technical Evening Class standing or university extension course standing is to be used under section 3(f) or 3(g), the candidate must have spent the required time in actual attendance in class and must submit from the proper authorities a statement that he attended regularly and obtained standing in the subject or subjects concerned.

6. If a candidate was granted Advanced Technical Evening Class standing because he held Grade 13 standing in one or more papers, he may not use both under section 3(g).

7. A prospective candidate who is interested in this matter should send his documents, with an explanatory letter to the Director of Vocational Teacher Education, at one of the Colleges of Education (Toronto or London).

8. An applicant for admission to the first of his two required summer sessions leading to the Interim Vocational Certificate, Type 'A', in 1966 and subsequent years will be required to hold Grade 13 standing in nine papers or equivalent standing as outlined in section 3, before he is admitted to the summer session. Grade 13 papers written in June immediately prior to the summer session cannot be used, since the results will not be available when the course opens.
